

NATIONAL CATHOLIC PRAYER BREAKFAST

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
March 23, 2009

CONTACT: Alicia Luschei
202-379-3117

CATHOLICS TO CONVENE FOR 6TH ANNUAL PRAYER BREAKFAST

ARCHBISHOP RAYMOND BURKE KEYNOTING, JUSTICE SCALIA SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKER

WASHINGTON, DC — On May 7 and 8 over 2,000 Catholics will gather at the 6th annual National Catholic Prayer Breakfast (NCPB) in Washington, D.C. on Friday, May 7, 2009 to hear the keynote address of His Excellency Archbishop Emeritus of St. Louis, Raymond Burke, who serves as the Prefect of the Apostolic Signatura at the Vatican and President of the Commission for Advocates, and special guest speaker, The Honorable Antonin Scalia, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court

“We are blessed that Archbishop Burke and Justice Scalia will be addressing the breakfast this year Leonard Leo, President of the NCPB stated. “This year promises to be a great event for our attendees, and we are looking forward to hosting these and other dynamic speakers who will address a number of very timely and interesting topics of interest to Catholics,” Leo added

The prayer breakfast will be held the following morning at the Hilton Washington Hotel beginning at 7:15 a.m. on May 8th. Bestselling Author and EWTN news director Raymond Arroyo will serve as the prayer breakfast’s master of ceremonies.

Additional announcements will be made in the coming weeks.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Thursday, May 7	6:30 p.m.	Mass at St. Matthew’s Cathedral 1725 Rhode Island Ave NW, Washington
Friday, May 8	7:15 a.m.	Breakfast at Hilton Washington 1919 Connecticut Avenue, N.W.

For more information, log onto www.catholicprayerbreakfast.com.

###